

March 2017

JOB PROFILE

Job Title: Engineering Technician
Hay Grade: H13
Department: Production Engineering

Purpose:

- To ensure all MacDermid Autotype Ltd's mechanical systems are maintained and operate to their specification and relevant standards.

Job Content:

- To carry out effective mechanical maintenance of plant and plant systems
- To carry out mechanical installations in accordance with relevant industry standards.
- To ensure by means of report that adequate levels of stock are maintained.
- To provide a call out facility to the plant during the night hours.
- To identify and report effectively, mechanical problems to the Engineering Management Team
- To operate and maintain the permit to work system.
- To carry out safety checks when required and record.

Success Factors:

- No plant breakdowns due to mechanical failure.
- No injuries to MacDermid Autotype employees due to mechanical failure.
- No excessive downtime due to lack of spare parts or stock.
- No call outs during night hours.
- Engineering Management Team are kept fully aware of potential mechanical problems

Job Knowledge:

- CityCity & Guilds part 1 & 2 Mechanical Engineering.
- Certification of the Competent use of Welding & Cutting equipment.
- Awareness of responsibilities regarding the safe use of circulated water systems.
- Sound mechanical fabrication techniques.
- Sound use of Autotype machine tools.
- Forklift truck license.
- Scissor & Boom Lift Licence